

private garage

This design emerged from the clients' desire for a small 1-car garage with living space above to complement their home. The design draws from the existing home and includes a studio space above the garage. It is a collaboration with Harmony Design & Engineering and the home owner.

Completed in 2009

